

Please do not allow the banking industry or any other businesses to telemarket our home. Companies abused this privilege for years and I feel it should not be given back to them. It is an invasion of my privacy. Thank You for taking the time to read this, Sincerely, Steve Woods